DORSEY'S PIT STOP

Dorsey Schroeder and his wife Kim opened the "Pit Stop" in May of 2002. After a 30 year career as a Professional Race Car Driver and TV Commentator Dorsey did what came natural to him, cook! During his career he amassed many championships including the 1989 Trans Am series and Rookie of the Year. He drove for many of the top team owners including Jack Rousch, Junie Donlavey, Cale Yarborough, Bill Elliot, Robert Yates, and Chip Ganassi and was a honored driver for Ford Racing! Still today Dorsey is a full time commentator for the American Le Mans and Grand American series on Fox Sports Speed Channel! When he isn't traveling you can also find him tableside or in the kitchen here at the Pit Stop!

Dorsey and Kim take great pride in being the owner/managers and sharing their personal recipes with you. The restaurant is 100% managed by them and their great staff.

We welcome you to enjoy your meal with our view!
