Business Summary

This established daycare center has been loyally serving families on Houston's northwest side since 2006. The center utilizes early childhood curriculum developed by experts to engage children in age-appropriate activities and make learning fun. Spanish language classes are held twice a week. Teachers are trained in childhood development, activities for the age of children they care for, and using positive discipline and guidance, along with continuing education throughout the year. Current enrollment is 50, with licensing for 56. Opportunity to increase enrollment with local community marketing and advertising. Center participates in the NCI childcare program and the food program. Operating since 2010, the current co-owner/director is passionate about the care and education of young children but is ready to retire. Full-time assistant director also on staff. Tour by appointment only thru Broker. Please be discreet, employees are unaware business is for sale.
